ANIMAL CRUELTY IS A CRIME

10 Things Can Do to Help Stop Animal Cruelty:

Whether it's a case of neglect or a malicious act of cruelty, you can help protect animals. Why should you care? Because it's the right thing to do. Because cruelty to animals is illegal in our country (PCA) Act 1960(59 of 1960). Stopping cruelty to animals helps everyone.

What Can You Do?

1. Get help for the animal. If you see someone hurting an animal or if you suspect that an animal has been abused, by someone you know or by a stranger, there are things you can do. The most important act you can take is to report the cruelty to us immediately.
2. Get the facts. Write everything down. As a witness, you'll need to provide the date, time, location, and any other details you can remember, including descriptions of the animal, the type of cruelty, and the person who may be responsible for it.
3. Get the word out. Educate your friends, family, and teachers about animal cruelty and its connection to human violence.
4. Be a role model. Let your actions be a guide. Be kind to animals and let others know that hurting animals is wrong. Speak up for animals and urge others to do the same.
5. Be a responsible pet owner. Don't let your cats and dogs roam. Cats are safest indoors. When outdoors, dogs should be walked on a leash or supervised in a fenced yard. It's up to you to keep your pets safe.
6. Keep a lookout. If you see a stray or injured animal, contact us or your local animal care and control agency. Provide a description of the animal and the location.

7. Make the Net work. If you find an Internet site that promotes animal abuse, urge the service provider that hosts the web site to remove it immediately.

8. Stop cruelty before it begins. Teach school children, college students and public in your community to be kind.

9. Start a club. Start an animal protection club at your are. Write to us for tips and activity suggestions.

10. Join the Homeless Animals Helping Team. The Homeless Animals Helping Team is a volunteer group dedicated to helping homeless Animals .We are looking for animal lovers with time to volunteer, either at the feeding programs for homeless animals or by donating your talents in other ways.
